

Ten Little Ladybirds

Melanie Gerth and Laura Huliska-Beith

10

Ten little ladybirds sitting on a vine,

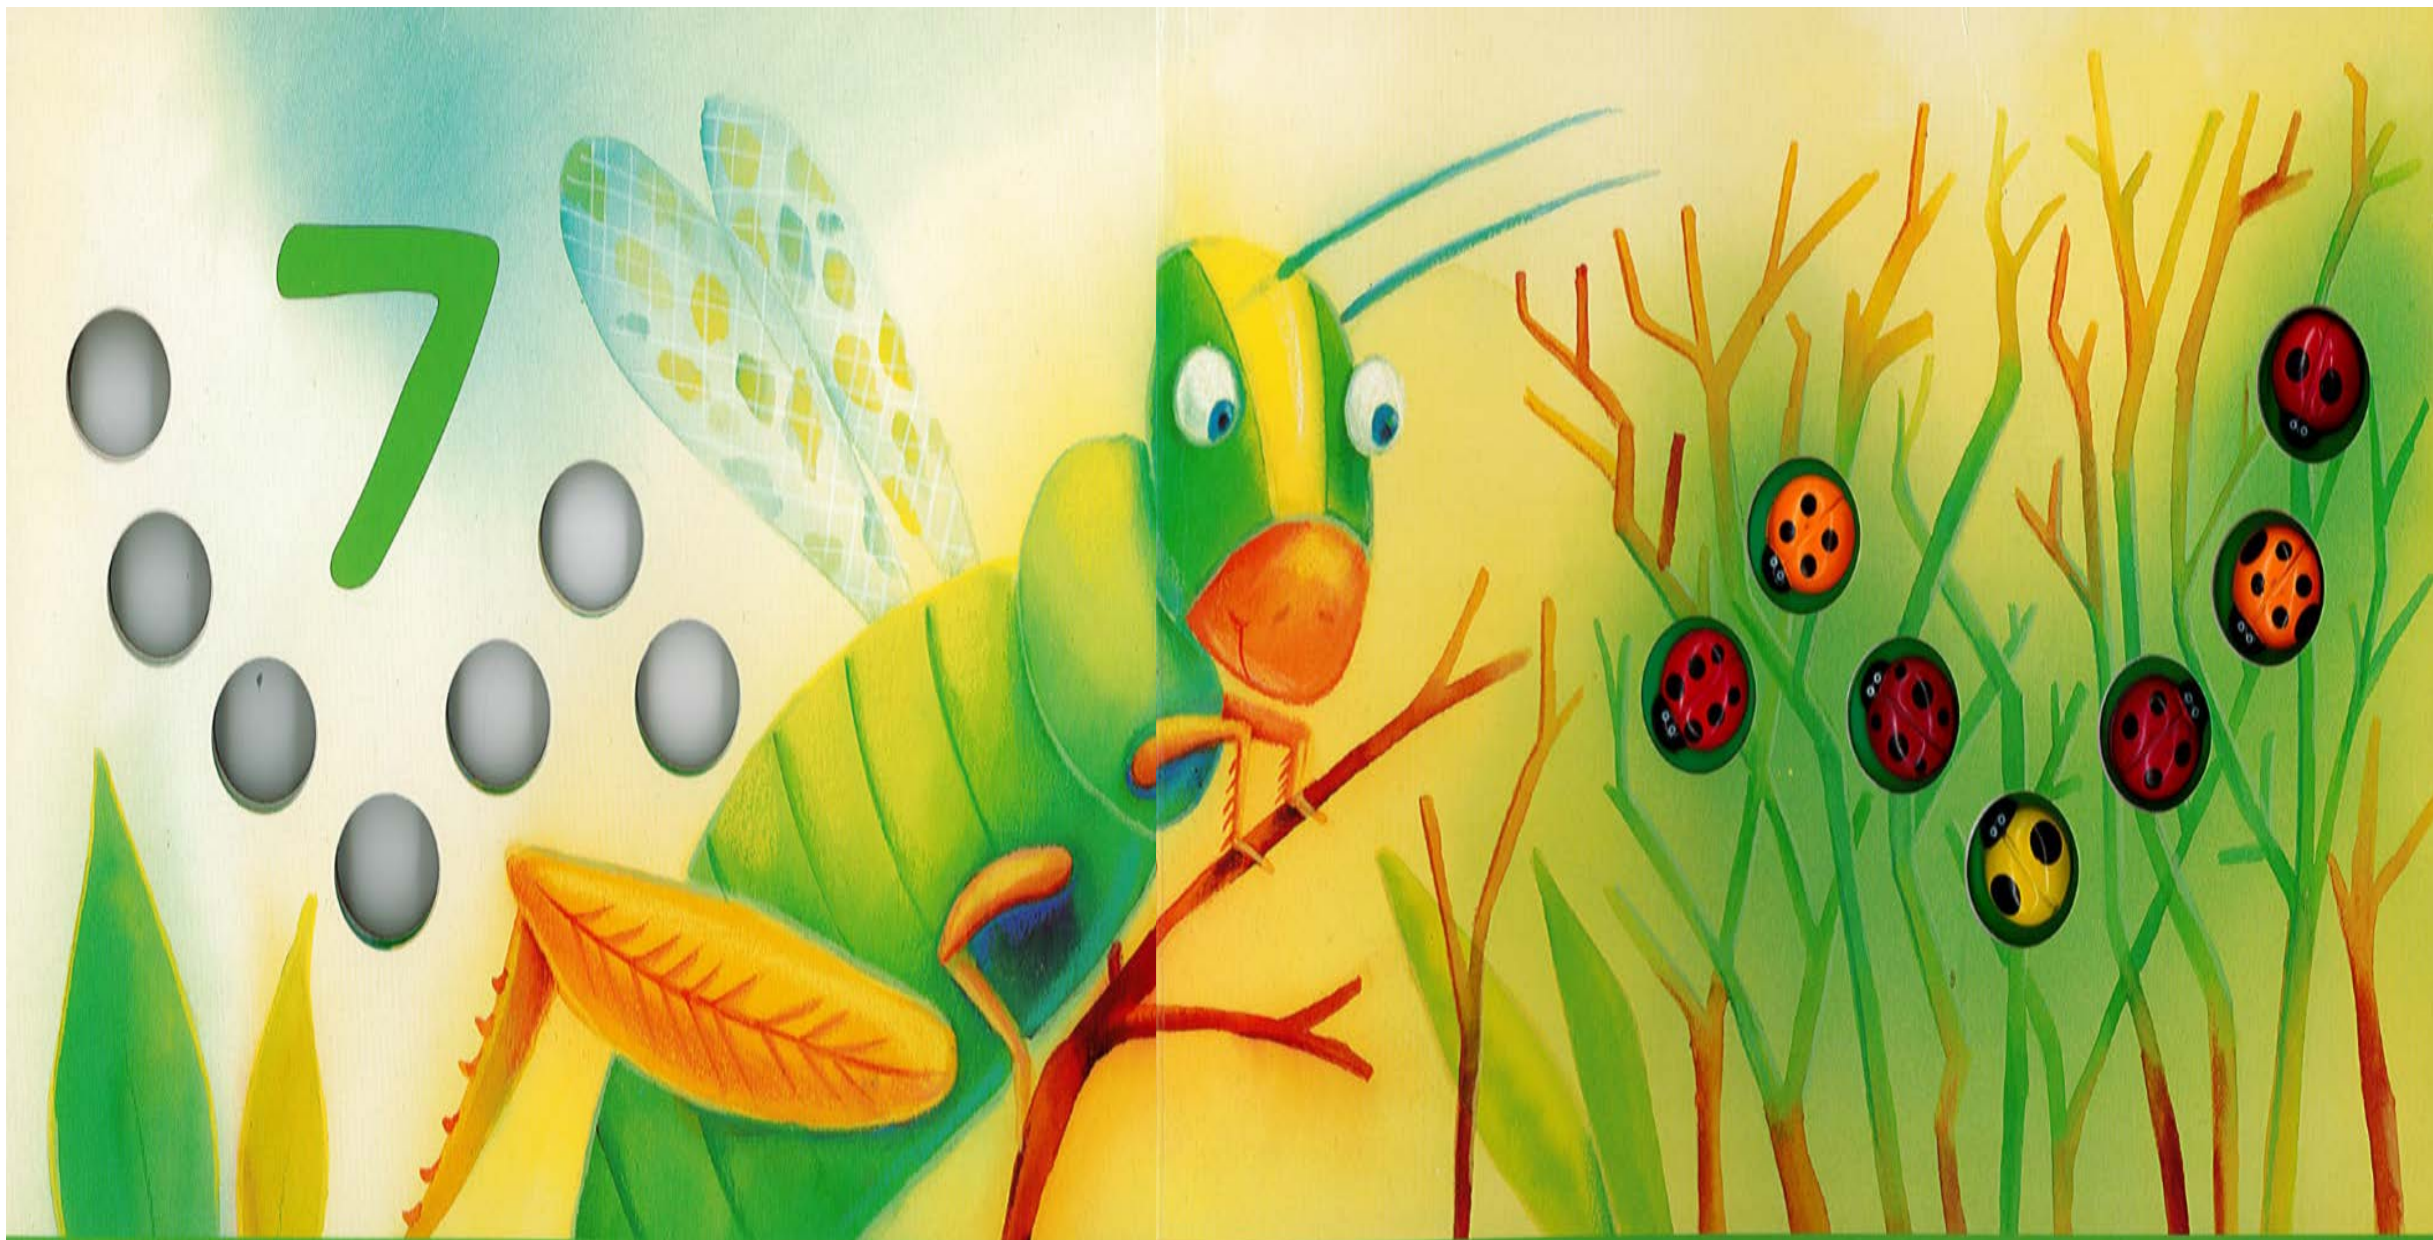

along came a butterfly - and that left . . .

Nine little ladybirds skipping on a gate,
along came a caterpillar - and that left . . .

Eight little ladybirds looking up at heaven, along came a bird - and that left . . .

seven little ladybirds resting on sticks, along came a grasshopper - and that left . . .

Six little ladybirds crawling near a hive, along came a bumblebee - and that left . . .

5

Five little ladybirds sleeping by the shore, along came a fish - and that left . . .

4

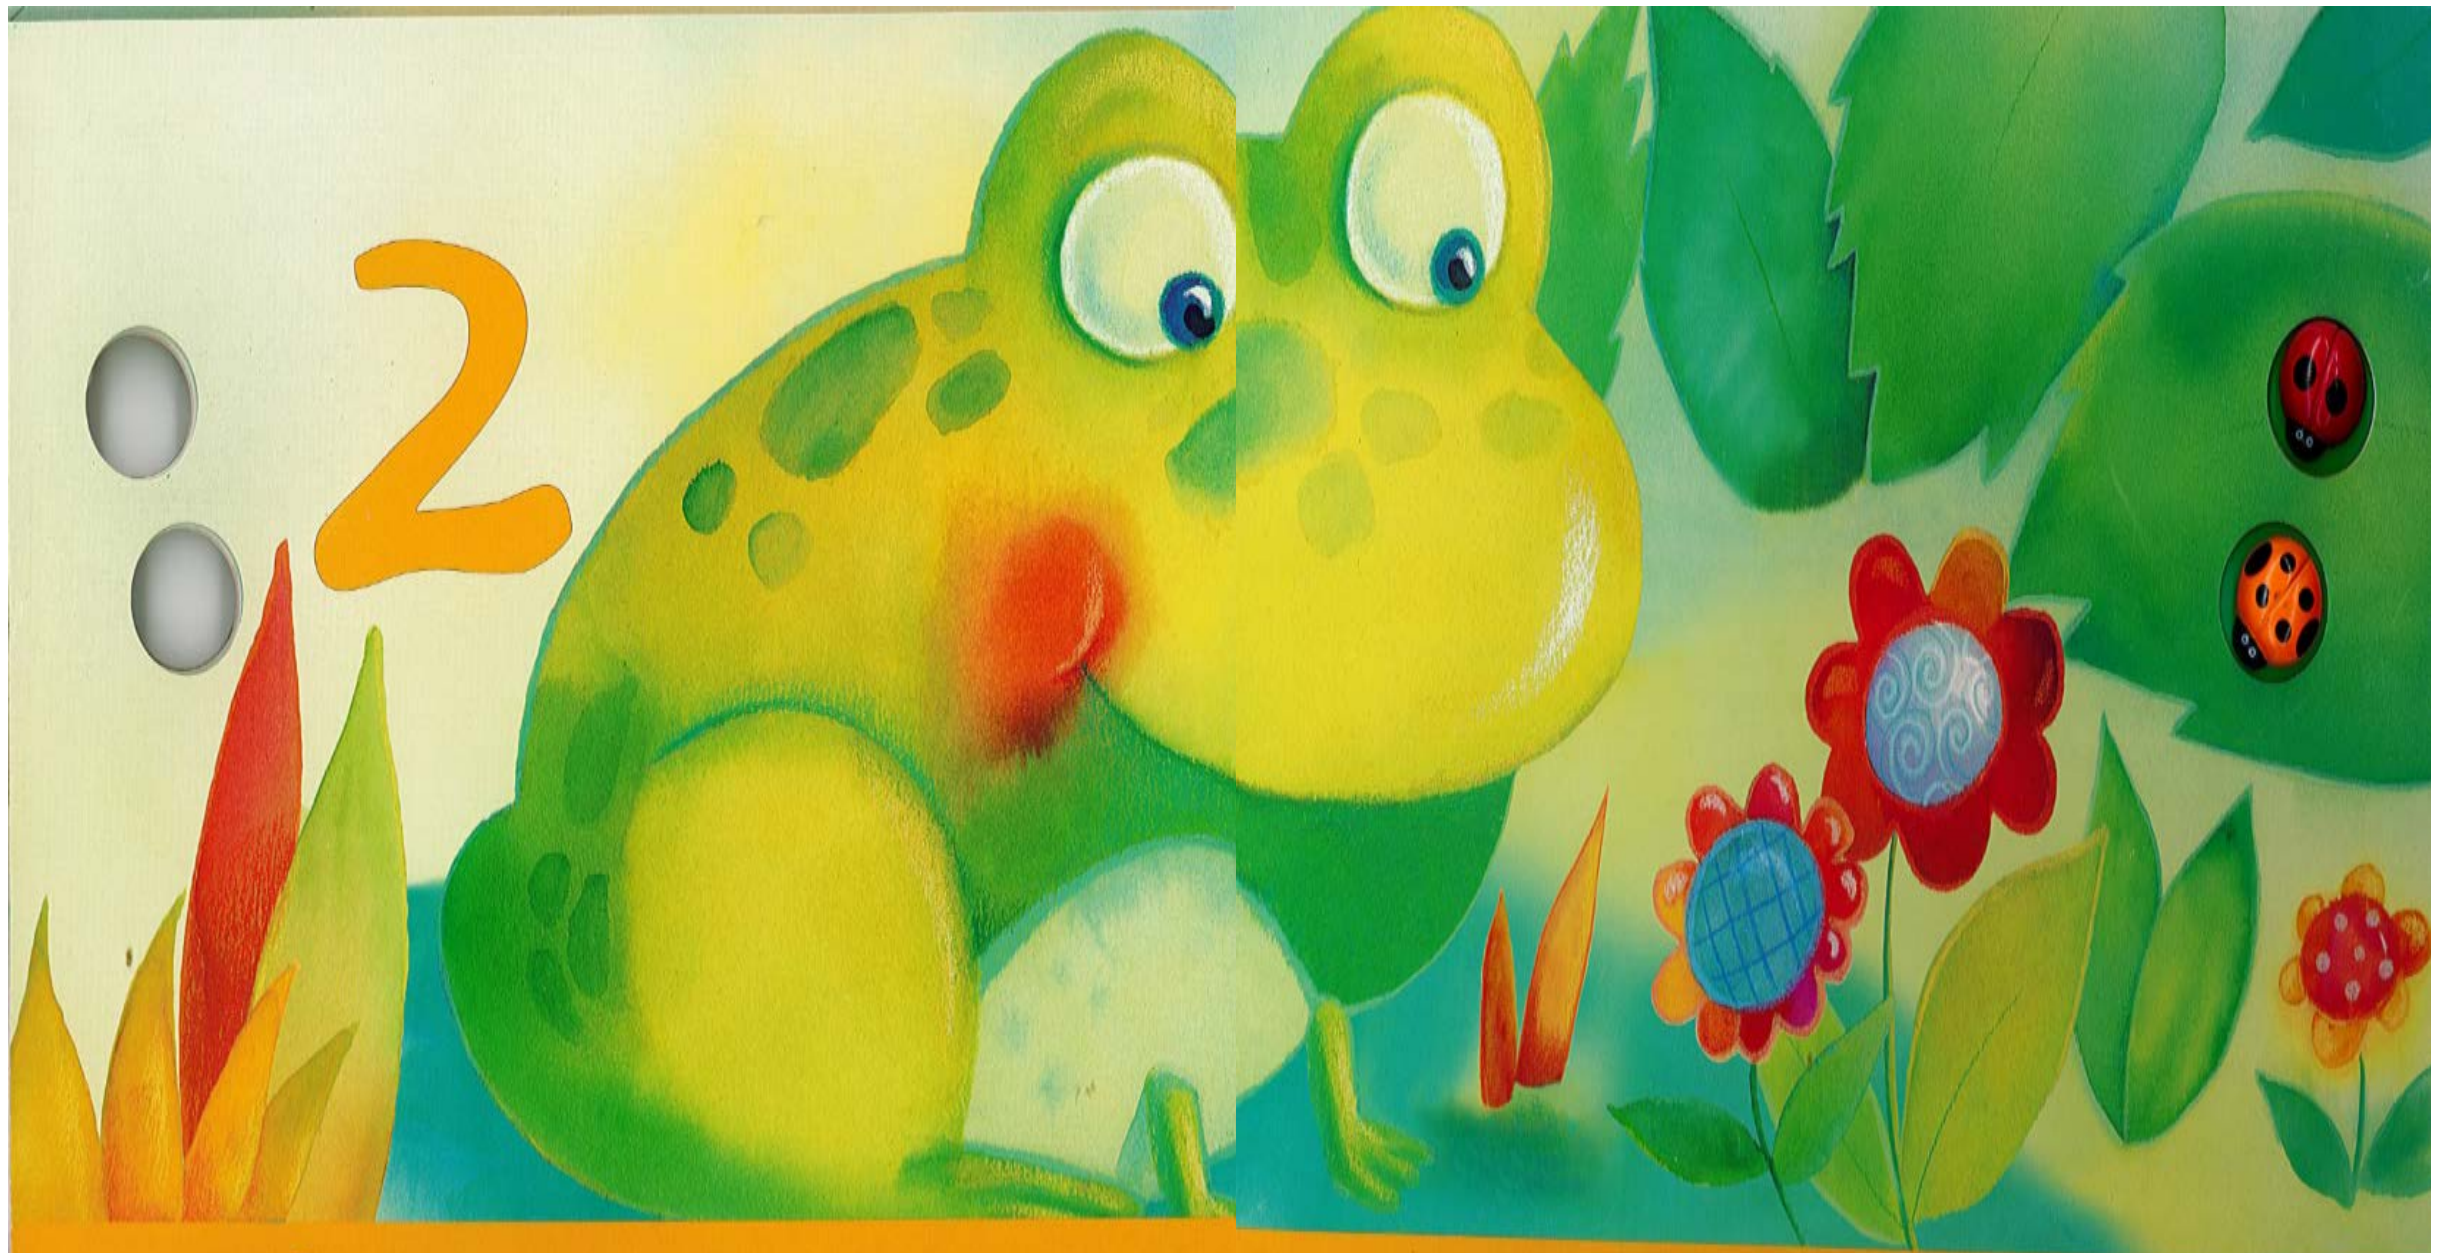

Four little ladybirds climbing up a tree, along came a turtle - and that left . . .

Three Little ladybirds drinking up dew, along came a duck - and that left . . .

TWO little ladybirds basking in the sun, along came a frog - and that left . . .

one little ladybird standing all alone, missing all her friends - she decided to . . .

