

Parent / Carer feedback form on SRE at Woodlands School

Please have a look at the PSHE section of the school website under 'Curriculum'. Here you will find information about PSHE (Personal Social Health Education) and SRE (Sex and Relationship Education) including a short video presentation. If you have any feedback for Woodlands School regarding SRE, please complete the form below and email / hand in to reception. Alternatively, email me at katie.bedford@woodlands.surrey.sch.uk

It is important that SRE is taught at school
I have sufficient information about what my child will learn in SRE
I am comfortable with the aspects of SRE taught at the primary level
I am comfortable with the aspects of SRE taught at the secondary level
SRE teaching needs to take account of faith perspectives
SRE should teach about all types of relationships including marriage, cohabitation and LGBT relationships
Home and school should work in partnership to support pupils with SRE teaching
I am aware of the right to withdraw my child from SRE
I know how to get more information about what is being taught in SRE in school
I would like some help about discussing SRE with my child at home
